Girls Cross Country

Although the Girls Cross Country team did not have a successful season regarding its team record, there were many individual goals achieved. Motivated by captains Lindsay Baker, Katherine MacDonald, and Erica Mustonen, the Rebel runners pushed themselves to do their best. However, victory was denied all but three times. Lead runner, Julie Abdelahad, placed first for the Rebels in every meet. Other key contributors were Baker, Colleen Cleveland, Kristine Johnson, Sunny Teich, and Monica Yerxa. In addition, freshman Lauren Nicoll joined the squad this year but was quickly injured and forced to sit out most of the season. Also, sophomore, Kelly Richall suffered shin splints and was unable to run for more than half of the season. Overall, membership was shallow this season, and the team needs to recruit more runners in the upcoming years. "Although we didn't have many wins, we had a lot of personal successes," said Coach Lauren Culliton. She believes that if, the runners "stick with it," the team will have a more successful season next year.

Boys Cross Country

The Boys Cross Country battled through a rough season this year as they failed to live up to its traditional reputation of a very strong squad. The team won one meet and suffered 10 losses for the year. Although the team had very few successes, individually there were several triumphs. The senior tri-capains, Tim Moylan, Matt Burns, and Kevin Tucker, all excelled this season. The number two runner on the team, junior Ben Hagberg, also performed well, earning a third or fourth place finish in most of his meets. Senior Tim Moylan was the number one runner on the team and had a very successful dual meet season. He won eight meets and lost three. He placed 13th in the Coach's Invitational at Franklin Park and placed 14th at the Class Meet which earned him an invitation to the All-State championships at Northfield Mountain. Seniors Kevin Tucker and Matt Burns both had excellent seasons and accomplished many of their pre-season goals. They earned points in all the team's dual meets and helped add to the depth of the varsity squad. The rest of the team consisted of Dave Schofield, Greg Dayton, John Feeney, Peter Panos, John O'Leary, Matt Ardine, Brett Fagan, Luke Dent, Chris Bergen, Dave Cobb, and James Wellock. All of their contributions were greatly appreciated and, if the team works hard enough, it will continue to improve and achieve success. The team would like to thank second year coach Lauren Culliton for her efforts.

Field Hockey

The Porkers had a tremendous season with 24 wins and 0 losses. The team earned their second consecutive Division I State Title. This is the sixth title of the decade. The Porkers scored 112 goals, and allowed only five. The team consisted of 13 seniors and a mix of underclassmen. The underclassmen gave great depth, allowing the team to have strength on the field. However, the seniors were the experience and the backbone of the team. The defensive unit was comprised of many seniors including: left half, Nora Mirando and Laurie Donovan; center half, Meghan Hughes; right half, Heather Hamwey, Sarah Smith, and Liz Ransom; and sweeper, Lisa Donovan. This defense has played together in tandem for two years. The midfield line had two seniors, Kate McDavitt and Lindsay Perham. Kate was the center midfielder and did an awesome job. Lindsay was at right midfield ,and was outstanding between the forward and back lines. On the forward line, senior Leeanne Rizzo, was this years center forward and a main goal scorer for the Porkers. Chelsey Perham and Mandy Deacon were the left wings and they also had spectacular years as well. The team earned numerous personal accolades. Highlights include: seven Bay State League All-Stars (K. McDavitt -MVP, Rizzo, Mirando, Hughes, Buckley, J. McDavitt, and Donovan-2nd team); two Globe All-Scholastics (K. McDavitt and Rizzo); three Herald All-Scholastics (Buckley, Rizzo, and K. McDavitt); four All Americans (regional- Rizzo, J. McDavitt, and Christine Buckley, second-team- K. McDavitt); six Daily News All-Stars (Hughes, Donovan, Nannicelli, J. McDavitt, Mirando, and Buckley); and Daily News Co-Players of the Year (Rizzo and K. McDavitt). This list of personal accomplishments shows how the hard work and dedication of the players paid off. Next year, without a doubt, the team will work hard and carry the Porkers through another successful season.

Football

Coming into the1999 football season, the unified Rebel team looked to obliterate last year's dismal (5 - 6) record from the minds of Bay State Conference opponents. The team achieved "REDEMPTION" by outscoring opponents 237-156, including a 21-18 victory over rival power, Norwood. The massive offensive line of seniors Jeff Machunski, Chris Sullivan, Tim Cullen, Alex Popp, Peter Zographos, Stephen Browne-Boone, and Mike Lewandos paved the way to victory over Framingham in game one. Highlights of the season included Chris Pruell playing the game of his life in the victory over Norwood. Tony Ruggiero also came up big with three touchdowns in the blowout victory over Dedham. Matt Galt had an 89-yard touchdown run to seal the deal against a stingy Brookline team. Rich Decembrele ran for over 100 yards against Natick. The outstanding special teams play was also crucial whether it was Matt Cimeno's 65-yard punts or Ed Fraser's speed coming off the corner to block a team high of 3 punts. John Wasilunas, Greg Campbell, Matt Donovan, and Jim Antonetti played true Rebel football and won't be forgotten either.

Cheerleading

The Rebel Cheerleaders began the season with a new head coach, Coach Mynahan. During August, the squad went to the UCA cheerleading camp at Holy Cross to learn new material for the season. Captain, Elaine Mannix, was chosen as a UCA All-Star for the second year in a row. Upon returning home, practices began and the girls were ready for business. They prepared for cheering at weekly football games and learned a new two and a half minute routine. The routine was packed with extreme stunts, cheers, and dances. At the first competition, the girls had a chance to shine as they showed off their new talent. They took home a third place trophy from the Shepard Hill competition, as well as a trophy for best overall routine. Exhausted both mentally and physically, the girls returned to the Bay State Conference two days later with different results. This time, the girls placed seventh. Liz Topham was chosen as a Bay State League Second Team All-Star and Captain, Lauren Young, was chosen as a Bay State League All-Star for the second year in a row. Overall, the girls had a successful season.

Girls Soccer

With senior captains Eileen Ahearn, Liz Sanfilippo and Meghan Shea leading this year's varsity squad, the girls soccer team was out to make a statement...and they did just that. Two big wins over Wellesley and Natick and ties with powerhouse teams Newton-North and Needham proved that these girls were a Cinderella team. They finished off the season at 5-5-7 and prepared for November soccer, the best there is. The team was victorious in their first tournament game vs. Foxboro. This game turned out to be a nail biter as it passed through sudden death overtime and moved on to an 11 round shootout. Although the team was upset in the second tournament game, this team had nothing to complain about. It had worked hard since August and showed the league that it was as big a threat as ever. The senior members will always remember Coach Tompkins and will be forever reminded by one of his statements, "These faces are those of the best friends you've made and you will never ever forget them."

Boys Soccer

After coming off a rather frustrating season last year, the Rebels had high expectations for the new season. This year, the Rebels had three goals to accomplish. First, to qualify for the state tournament. Second, to go as far as possible in the tournament. Third, to be the Hergret Division Champions. The Rebels finished the regular season with a record of 8-6-3. This put them at the top of the Hergret Division. This clinch of the division guaranteed them a seed in the State Tournament. Contributing goals this season were: Mike Cambria (co-capt.), Eric Stefansson, Ryan McAleese, John Shea, Tom Barossi (co-capt.), Kevin Donahue, Keven Dunn, and Mike Anello. Returning varsity goalkeeper Andrew Galonzka finished the regular season with a GAA of 1.09. He recorded five shutouts on the season. Providing solid back up was senior Mike Nosal. The defense was impressive in regular season matches. Commendable help came from a rugged defense lead by juniors Brandon Dubios, Dan Langmead and Chris Shea. The team was lead by captains: Rob Alexander, Mike Cambria and Tom Barossi. When looking back at the season the eleventh game comes to mind. This was the game when Newton North came to town. The Rebels took a 2-1 win over the defending Division 1 North Champions. With this type of success in the regular season, came greater challenges in the post season. The Rebels were able to defeat Holliston in the preliminary round but suffered a tough loss to Greater New Bedford in the next round. Despite the loss, the Rebels had nothing to be disappointed about. They had three goals at the start of the season and were able to fulfill each of them.

Golf

Although only one starter had returned from last year's squad, this year's Rebel golf team had a strong season. The team finished up with a 5-7-1 regular season record and was able to qualify for post season play because of its second place finish in the Bay State League Herget division. Many matches could have gone either way, according to captain Todd Anzlovar. Senior rookies Brian Newman and Brandon Mohondro helped secure the team's spot in this years state tournament. The team also had a strong showing from junior Drew Forte and sophomore Brian Kirby. Other contributers were Dan Mastaby, Chris Brundrett, and Larry Amara. The highlight of the season occured when the team handed Newton North its first loss of the season after seven matches. Todd Anzlovar shot a 33 to lead the team to victory. Anzlovar also was victorious in the conference All-Star tournament, winning it in a playoff. The team should be strong next fall with only three seniors graduating from the team.

Swimming

The swim team finished their season with a record of 4-6. This was one of their best records ever. The team was lead by senior captains Beth Hennessey and Caitlin Shea-Kenney. Many swimmers achieved their personal bests and Caitlin Shea-Kenney, Laura Donovan (Sophomore), Vanessa Smith (Freshman), and Caroline Costa (Sophomore) all made sectionals in different events. The other members of the Rebel swim team included senior Corey Palmer; juniors Kelly Springham, Andrea Hafner, and Kate Keller; sophomores Jessica Fallon, Lindsay McDonough, and freshmen Brie Gaffney, Julianne McCormick and Ashley Cannon. The team is looking forward to another successful season next year with captains Kate Keller and Kelly Springham.

Girls Volleyball

The Walpole High School Girls Volleyball team had a tough season and was unable to qualify for the state tournament. Although their record was 6-10, they still remained a Herget Division threat defeating Norwood, Natick, and Dedham. One exciting victory in particular was against Norwood in which the Rebels battled thier opponent for three close-scoring game matches. Despite a subpar season, the Rebels produced two Bay State Conference All-Stars. They were Pamela Tately and second time All-Star Kristen LaRoche. Tately and LaRoche were also co-captains. Julieanne Capone added depth to the team among senior starters. Other consistent contributors included seniors Erin Koontz, Kaley Krueger, and Lindsay Polo. Coach Heidi Bruschi remains optimistic for next season despite the loss of six seniors. Whether or not the volleyball team will be able to return to the state tournament will depend on next year's crop.

Girls Winter Track

The Rebel Winter Girls Track team posted a decent 3-4 overall record this year. The team was lead by senior captains Emily Logan and Caitlin Shea-Kenney, and junior Kate Bohan. One of the most exciting victories came against rival Norwood in its only meeting of the season. The team also produced two conference all-stars in Logan for the mile and sophomore Lisa Bielenin for the 300m. The Class C meet proved to be a success for the Rebels as the 4x400 relay team of Bohan, Bielenin, Megan O'Toole, and Meryl Carberry placed well. Bielenin finished thirteenth out of a field of sixty in the 300m and Logan placed third in the mile. The 4x400 relay team as well as Logan represented the Rebels at the state meet. With few graduating seniors and many key contributors the girls look to improve their record next year with more experienced runners.

The Rebel Boys Track Team was a success, improving from 0-7 last season to an impressive 5-2 this year and more than doubling the number of total points scored. The team was led by senior captains Tim Moylan, Mike Cambria, Jon Shea, and Peter Zographos. Zographos won the Class C State meet in shot put with a throw of 49 feet and placed second at the Bay State Conference meet. Mike Lewandos, Matt Hunt and Zographos also took first in the Class C state shot put relay. Cambria came in second in the 300m, Moylan placed third in the two mile, and Jon Shea finished second in the 1000m at the Bay State Conference. Under the leadership of Ben Hagberg and Dan Bielenin, next year's captians, the boys look toward next year to improve their record with a mix of experienced runners returning. Sophomore Jeff Donovan will be a major competitor in the 55 hurdles. Shane Kelly, a junior, will also be a key member of the team running in the 50 meter dash. The 4x800 relay team, which placed fourth at the class C meet was comprised of sophomore Sean Crowley, juniors Ben Hagberg and Dan Bielenin, and senior anchorman Jon Shea.

Girls Basketball

Even though the Rebels were transplanted to the Elm Street School due to the construction, it did not affect the team at all. The team was victorious throughout the regular season. This great accomplishment gave the Rebels an impressive second seed going into the tournament. However, as with everything, all good things must come to an end. The Rebels suffered an uncharacteristic first loss in the championship game of the Merril Lynch Hoop Classic. The team fell to Oliver Ames, with a score of 54-48. However, going into the first round of the state tournament, the Rebels remained confident. Being a young team (composed of only two seniors: Kate McDavitt and Monique Buckley), the Rebels had proved that they could play with anyone. The team boasted an all-star line-up. Senior captain, Kate McDavitt, provided leadership and defensive tenacity at the guard position. She was accompanied by her sophomore partners, Kristin DiCalogero and the reliable Jenna Cook. The three combined for an impressive back court. To complete the all-star line-up, Marta Mazzawi and Ingrid Johnson supplied plenty of support on the boards. Yet, in the end, the Rebels could not hold on to the halftime lead, losing 54-50. Even with this crucial loss, a season this remarkable, complete with nailbiters and blowouts, will not be soon forgotten.

Boys Basketball

The Rebel Boys Basketball team's agressiveness and relentless work ethic played a big part throughout the season. Led by captains Jimmy Kelly and Rob Alexander, the team tried their best to bounce back with a new coach John Johanessan and an overall young group. Juniors Kurt Vranich, Mike Hartnett, Chris Navis, John Langley, and Chris Eicher all contributed significantly to the program. Sophomores Tom McCarthy and Joe McDermott also provided valuable minutes. The final season record of two wins and 17 losses in no way reflected the effort that was put forth. The Rebels ended the season by going to the semi-finals of WHS hosted Rodman Rebel Round-Up Tournament before losing to Seekonk by a mere eight points. Senior co-captain, Jimmy Kelly, was the tournament all-star, but did not do it alone; BSC all-star Mike Hartnett, John Langley, Kurt Vranich, Chris Navis, and up-and-coming underclassmen all helped out. Backed by co-captain Rob Alexander, who had surgery midseason, the Rebel team was unified and did its best to try to meet its goals. Jimmy Kelly, Mike Hartnett, and Kurt Vranich were all nominated for Neponset Valley Daily News All-Stars. Kelly received honorable mention and Hartnett received a spot on the Neponset Valley All-Star team to cap off a good season for Rebel basketball.

The Rebels finished the regular season with a record of 18-7, finishing in third place in the Bay State League. The team placed sixth in the Division 2 South Sectionals. Senior Tom Barossi (130), senior James Spencer (135), sophomore Kevin Greener (140), junior Zach Kline (145), senior Ed Fraser (152) , junior Bill Verrochi (215), and junior Matt Campopiano (heavy-weight), had strong showings. Spencer (first), Kline (second), Greener (third), Fraser (fourth), Verrochi (fourth), and Campopiano (fourth) all qualified to move on to the state meet. Spencer defeated all of his opponents en route to capture first place in the 135 weight class. Kline only lost one match, finishing in second place in the 145 weight class. The six qualifiers next stop was Marshfield for the state competition. This tournament featured all the sectional winners from Division 2 throughout the state. Fraser (third place), Spencer (fifth place) and Kline (fifth place) all qualified as alternates. The boys were not able to continue on, as Fraser and Spencer lost their first two matches and were eliminated. However, the strong showing from the team in this past season was impressive and shows a bright picture for the next few seasons to come. Losing only four seniors, coach Barry Greener will have a nucleus of wrestlers in every weight class.

Hockey

The Rebels Hockey Team had a sub par season this year, despite exciting play with an overall record of 5-14-3. The Herget Division proved to be very competitive with every team having the ability to win on any given night. Although the Rebels had some trouble putting the puck in the net, they managed to score a total of 56 goals while allowing a respectable 75. There was some inconsistency as the team would score five or six goals one game and then be shutout the next. The Rebels' competitiveness can be attributed to the tough net minding of senior captain Joe Lamoureux who let up only 62 goals on 516 total shots faced. He was rewarded by earning a spot on the second all-star team, along with seniors Matt Cimeno, Nik Monahan and junior Billy Cuqua who were elected to the first team. Monahan and Cimeno led the team with points. Fan support was key to the two conference match ups with rival Norwood Mustangs, the arena was packed to full capacity.The Rebels will strive to improve next year despite losing seniors Joe Lamoureux, Nik Monahan, Matt Cimeno, Chris Sullivan, Jay Goguen, Greg D'Andrea, Brendan Mercure, and Justin Orlando.

Gymnastics

The Rebel Gymnastics team had another successful season. Senior Meghan Lutz and juniors Nicole Rockwood and Jessica Doyle captained the team to a 10-2 record. Due to construction, the team was forced to practice and hold meets in Framingham. The team also had a new coach, Juley Perkins, who helped the girls achieve an amazing season. At the Bay State Conference, the team placed second and went on to the team sectionals. The team made impressive efforts, but was not able to move onto the state finals. Jessica Doyle had an excellent season which qualified her to compete in the All-Around at the state championships, but unfortunately due to two sprained ankles she was inable to compete. This year, juniors, Kathryn Lambergs and Maria Gerth, and sophomore Kristin Ridge were key contributors to the All-Around as well. At the Bay State Conference Meet Lambergs, Ridge, Gerth, Rockwood, and Doyle all placed in individual events. Doyle was named a Bay State All-Star. This young team has much hope for the future with the loss of only one senior, Meghan Lutz, who has been an asset to the team for the past four years. The gymnastics team may be unrecognized, but it has definitely earned respect with a spectacular season.

Girls Spring Track

The Rebel Girls Spring Track may not have had many wins this season but that did not stop them from striving for and achieving individual glory. In fact, many of the girls have gone undefeated in their respective events, but, because there is usually only one girl per event, the competing teams automatically take second and third place and quickly make up the point deficit and win the meet over all. Therefore, each member is an integral part of the team. Sophomore Meryl Carberry led the team with 75 points. Junior Kate Bohan, who is a co-captain and major contributor, was undefeated in the 100 meter, and had only one loss in the 200 meter. Next, Emily Logan, the only senior girl on the team and co-captain with Bohan, was also undefeated in the mile and two mile events. Other much improved athletes include Allison Bolster and Julie Abdelahad. Bolster has improved her javelin throwing to a personal record of 87 feet while Abdelahad has drastically improved her two mile times from last season. In closing, the girls track team is young and has a promising future.

The Rebel track runners have seen better years. The squad gave its all, meet after meet, but victory eluded them time and time again. Nonetheless, the track team is filled with many talented runners, making this an individual's season. Senior Captain Tim Moylan was a contender all season, competing in everything from the 200 hurdles to the two-mile event. Mike Cambria, also a senior, is another versatile runner and competed in the 200 meter, 400 meter, and the 4X100meter relay. Other successful running Rebels include co-captain Jon Shea, who placed third at the conference meet with a time of 4:35 in the mile, and Ben Hagberg, who placed fifth in the mile, running a speedy 4:45. Dan Bielenin has also had a successful season concentrating on the 800 meter where his personal record was 2:07. Doug Kelliher, the team's leading high jumper, was out much of the time due to injury, but Edwin Francois stepped up to the plate and filled the void by springing to 5'4'' in his rookie season. Next year looks to be a promising season as many team members will be returning. The team wishes to thank its coaches and wishes the graduating seniors best of luck next year.

Girls Lacrosse

Not only did the Walpole High School Girls Lacrosse team improve upon last year's record, they had an opportunity to qualify for the state tournament for the first time in the program's history. The team ended up finishing the season with an impressive 8-8 record. The team was led by fourth year head coach Mike Vitelli and senior co-captains Jackie Kessel, Alissa Lassell, and Erin McLaughlin. The experience provided by the three captains and the other veterans may be the difference that has made propelled the team to success. In addition, this talented group consisted of numerous younger key players. Sophomores Erin Black, Shannon Kelly, and Lisa Bielenin provided quality minutes while relieving the starters. Also,sophomore Kristen Brown earned a starting spot in the squad. "The most beneficial thing to our squad was the dedication of the players," said senior anchor Jackie Kessel. The attack improved tremendously due to the formidable attack wing, led by senior captains Lassell and McLaughlin. Juniors Lisa Shevory and Christine Buckley have contributed to the success as well and will, no doubt, be crucial players next season. Hopefully, the Rebels will continue to excel in future years and take a place among the other Walpole powerhouses.

Boys Lacrosse

The Walpole High School Boys Lacrosse Team had its ups and downs this season but improved on last season. The team recorded the largest number of wins ever for Rebel Boys Varsity Lacrosse. The feat is especially significant because half of the starting players are only sophomores. The goal scoring was led by seniors Tony Ruggiero and Joe Brady with great aid by juniors Matt Rinella on attack and Brian Ludwig at midfield. Also working diligently on offense were strikers Matt Brady and Adam Tripp, both of whom will return next year. Holding up the back were Sean Elwood, Greg Shea, John Wasilunas, Mark Cuddy, and Matt Donovan led by their goalie, Jeff Lamoureux. Although only a sophomore, Lamoureux had a remarkable season, averaging an astounding 20 saves per game. Making the transition in the midfield were Tony Ruggiero, Ed Fraser, and Brian Ludwig. With Nick Crowley, Sean Crowley, and Joe Brady rotating in. Although the Rebels' record was not that impressive, many of its games were lost by only one point. With a large core of varsity lettermen returning, hopefully, the team will continue its trend of improvement.

Softball

The Rebel softball squad had a rough season, following a slew of injuries. The season had a bumpy start when the Rebels lost the season opener to Norton 4-3. However, things improved at the next game when Natick was defeated, despite Kristin Hockman chipping a tooth during a crucial out. Then it was on to Brockton. Here, the Rebels were blown away by a score of 11-1. Only Liz Sanfilippo was able to score a run against this tough team. Next on the schedule was Weymouth. The Rebels were neck and neck most of the game until sophomore Sarah Taglienti doubled to left, and senior power hitter Kristin LaRoche singled and moved Taglienti to third. Eventually, the bases were loaded and an always impressive grand slam was hit by sophomore Meghan Murphy. The end result was victory by a score of 10-6. This win helped cement the teams unity and gave them the necessary confidence to battle their way to a tournament spot. It was a tough battle but in the end, well worth it. The Rebels made it to post season by the skin of their teeth and were quickly eliminated in the first round. Next year's team will have to work hard to fill the void of the graduating seniors. The team would like to thank Danielle Lightbody, Meghan Hughes, Kristen LaRoche, Kristin Hockman, and Liz Sanfilippo for all their hard work and dedication. Also, special thanks to coach Murphy, Taglienti and Brown for all their support.

Baseball

Again, the Walpole High Baseball team enjoyed a very successful season. The team headed by Coach Bill Tompkins and Captains Rich Decembrele and Pat Moriarty attained an astounding record this year including numerous post season victories. The Rebels had excellent pitching throughout the year headed by the ace and senior pitchers Greg "The Doc" Coughlan, Joe Lamoureux, Chris Dugdale, Pat Moriarty, and junior Larry Amara. The defense was much improved over last year as Pat Moriarty led the charge at third base, Chris Navis at shortstop, Greg "Soup" Campbell and Brian Newman at second, Rich Decembrele at first, and Bill Cuqua and Tim Cullen behind the plate. The outfield was solid all around with senior Jeff Machunski in left, Shane Kelly in center, and Mike Brown and Kevin Greener in right. Also, the bats were solid up and down the order as speedsters Shane Kelly, Chris Navis, Kevin Greener, Mike Brown, and Brian Newman set the table for sluggers Rich Decembrele, Pat Moriarty, Bill Cuqua, Jeff Muchunski, Tim Cullen, Rick Lipsett, Greg Campbell, and Bob Arey. The Rebels successfully defended the Bay State Conference Championship title from last year and rebounded from last years disappointing Division 1 South Tournament elimination. The Rebels had great success in the tournament as the "Doc" pitched a gem against a strong North Quincy Club. He surrendered only four hits (two infield hits) and threw only 98 pitches. Greg Campbell led the charge for the offense as he banged out three hits. The team made it all the way to the finals. Although final victory would be denied, this team had much to celebrate.

Girls Tennis

Under the guidance of a new coach, this year's girls tennis team had an exciting season. Coach Joe Sweeney, who has a solid background of 30 years in the field of tennis was committed to enhancing the individual skills of all his new players. During practices, he was focused primarily on improving his team's basic skills, such as serving. Senior captains Eileen Ahearn and Mandy Deacon had the difficult task of keeping all 18 girls on the team focused and in tune with the sport, as they were becoming accustomed to the new coach and his methods. One of the team's strongest players was first singles player Katherine MacDonald who was on the team all four years. Second singles player was Eileen Ahearn who captured the attention of the tennis club with her strong forehand and agile footwork. Strengthening the team in first doubles were Mandy Deacon and junior Lori Andrews. The two-girl team worked extremely hard and easily coasted to victory on more than one occasion. Even though the three senior players, Eileen Ahearn, Mandy Deacon, and Katherine MacDonald, are leaving the 2000 tennis team, the underclassmen plan to fill the gap next year and rise to the occasion. Coach Sweeney hopes to be back coaching next year and plans to continue working on new strokes and techniques.

Boys Tennis

This year the Rebel tennis team had an extremely competitive season, as it played all home matches at the Johnson Middle School due to the contruction of the new high school building. The Rebels ended the season with a disappointing record of 7-9. Despite the fact that the Rebels fell short of a tournament spot, numerous personal goals were met. Captains Jason Peckham and Mike Pearson provided much high caliber play. Aside from the senior captains, the team relied heavily upon the talent of juniors Dan Langmead and Chris Bergen. Both are looked upon as future leaders of this talented young group. Other junior success came from the improvement of doubles partners Kevin "The Roosta" Donahue and Greg Dayton. Next, noteworthy success came from sophomore Rory Panagotopulos and junior Brett Fagan as they shared third singles. In addition, a doubles team, known as the Barracudas (Dave Schofield and Chris Landry), has erupted and is expected to help the struggling team shine next season. Perhaps Coach Ouellette said it best when he summed up the season as follows: "Looking ahead to the next couple of years, we are cultivating a lot of young talent. We are going through a lot of rebuilding and should be a contender over the next few years."

Roman

The annual Roman Banquet took place at Walpole High School on Thursday, May 18th. Latin students, from the classes of Mrs. Penny Calf and Ms. Liz Kelley, dressed as ancient Romans and recreated Roman sports and entertainment. Unfortunately, the Sun God Apollo chose to take a vacation in the middle of the chariot races, but the rainy weather did not dampen the spirits of the 154 Latin students who participated. The Latin I slaves, bound in a paper chain, with authentic guarantees around their necks testifying to their worthiness, were auctioned off to the Latin II nobles and Latin III and IV gods to serve them for the evening. The best-dressed Romans were judged to be: Miss Mount Olympus - Jen DeMambro, dressed as the goddess Diana; Mr. Mount Olympus - Chris Eicher, dressed as the god Bacchus; Miss Rome - .Jessica Cataldo; Mr. Rome - Lucas Gormley; Serva Pulcherrima - Alison Driscoll; Servus Pulcherrimus - Tim Kowalczyk. The most realistic slave costumes were worn by Ashley Newhall and Ian Jones. The Olympic events followed. The Janus race was won by Ben Hagberg and Matt Crown; the Aeneas race was won by Ben Hagberg, Matt Crown, and Kevin Goguen. The Mummy Wrap was won by Amy Fitzgerald, Kate Miller, and Alex Viano, who most quickly wrapped up freshman Jill Newman. The Atlanta relay race was won by Matt Brady, Dan Colleran, Matt Hunt, and Scott Lawes. In the class race, Ixion's "pass the hula hoop" race was won by the Latin III class, although the Latin IV Insuperati's also claimed victory. The highlight of the evening was, as always, the chariot race, held on the track, despite the rain. Fifteen chariots competed in 5 heats. Winning the chariot race was the chariot of Peter Butera, Tony Larkin, and Chris Mucciarone, which flew to victory when the runner-ups (Mike Anello and Sean O'Keefe) lost their charioteer (Matt Crown) on a turn. After a dinner of Roman pizza, salads, and pastries, and after some singing and dancing by the slaves, the deification of the Latin IV class was conducted by Lisa Shevory, one of the consuls of the Latin Club. Crystal Hosking, Katey Jones, Vanessa Madge, John O'Leary, Liz Ransom, Denise Ricci, Liz Sanfilippo, Sarah Smith, and Andrea Wong received crowns to signify their succesful completion of four years of Latin. Then the four Latin I classes performed entertaining skits. Teachers selected as this year's Junior Classical League Honorary Teachers were invited to join in the festivities. Those in attendance were Mr. Bill Boozang, Miss Lisa Davey, Mr. Chuck Grant, Mr. Dan Mullaney, Mr. Bob Mullaney, Mrs. Karen Sullivan, and Mr. Stephen Waisgerber. All participants went home with a commemorative T-shirt, highlighting the Roman Banquet. Once again the Roman Banquet showed that you don't have to speak a foreign language to live it. Latina vivit!

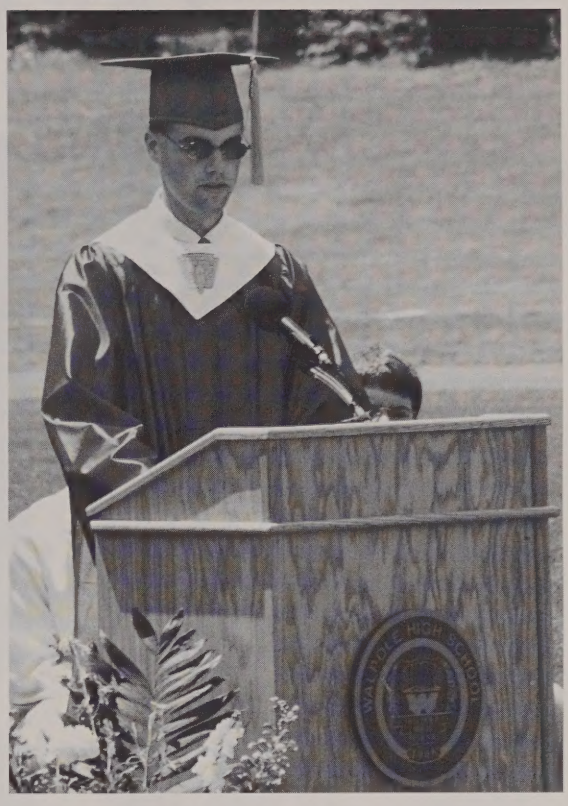
Speech of Class President John O'Leary

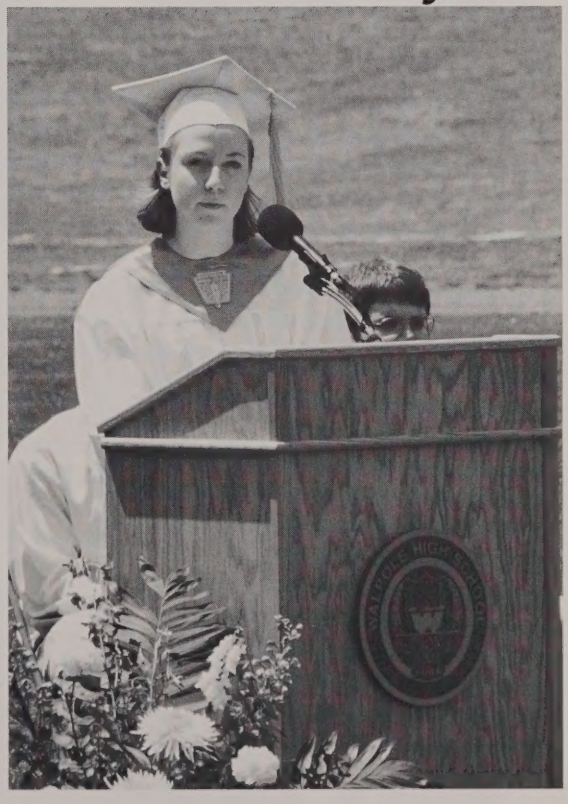
Dr. Livingston, members of the school committee, honored guests, Dr. Sambuceti, members of the administration, faculty, family, friends, and of course my fellow classmates, good morning. "There are places I remember, all my life, though some have changed. Some forever, not for better. Some have gone, and some remain." If you don't know, this is a lyric from a Beatles song. And if you don't know who the Beatles are, that's another speech altogether that I just don't have time for right now. This lyric never really meant that much to me, and I'd bet many of you, until this year. There are places I remember, and some have changed. There is an old Latin saying, "All things change, and we change in them." I've found that to be true of our experience. Quite obviously, the building has changed, the wall over there is gone, and the area that used to hold the tennis courts has been changed into...well, I'll get back to you on that one. But so much more has changed as well. Things have changed and we have changed in them. We are no longer a group of childish high school freshmen, jaws agape wondering how we are ever going to survive in this place and just where the heck the pool is. Now we are together for the last time as childish high school seniors, jaws agape wondering how we ever survived at that place and just where the heck the pool was. We've seen some interesting things, from history teachers breaking television sets to an incredibly handsome and surprisingly available candidate for class president mentioning a gardening tool in his campaign slogan, and actually winning. We've had our good times, from parties causing a scandal before a field trip to male beauty pageants where we've lost what little dignity we had left. We've also had our not so good times, but one thing I've noticed here is just how tight we always were as a class. I can't say ever remember hearing about a fistfight between anyone in our class or of an argument lasting for more than a matter of days, if not hours. We will always be remembered as the class of 2000 simply because of this special year, but we also leave behind a timeless legacy of being one of the most dedicated, school spirited, and all around best classes this school has ever seen. We are a model for future classes to follow. Along with this legacy we leave our class gift. Sadly, this year we saw the passing of Mrs. O'Malley's young son, Emmet. This tragedy truly struck our school, and it is our class's gift to have his memory honored by donating the funds to have a scholarship started in his name. So this being my last chance to address you all as a class, I wish you all luck and I will end this with the same Beatles song I started with. "I know I'll never lose affection, for people and things that went before. I know I'll often stop and think about them. In my life, I love you more." Thankyou. Goodbye.

Speech of Valedictorian Kevin Tucker



Dr. Livingston, members of the school committee, Dr. Sambuceti, faculty, staff, parents, family, honored guests, and classmates: Today is the end of one stage of our lives, and the beginning of the next. Graduation is the day that we have all looked forward to, the day when we are accepted into the world as adults. Up to this point, our lives have been spent in preparation for the years to come. From our parents, we learned right from wrong, life lessons, and the values by which we will live the rest of our lives. From our teachers, we have learned the information and skills necessary to excel in the world. From each other, we have learned about friendship. The time for preparation has ended. In 1933, when Franklin D. Roosevelt was inaugurated as President of the United States, our country was in the midst of the Great Depression. When he became President, he realized that his time for preparation was at an end. The United States needed action. Roosevelt did not follow the laissez-faire paths of his predecessors President Hoover or those before him, but instead instituted what came to be called the New Deal. Roosevelt initiated many far-reaching federal programs to achieve the goals of the New Deal: relief, recovery, and reform. He created the New Deal despite fierce opposition in Congress, and as a result helped the country to overcome the Great Depression. Roosevelt's willingness and ability to discover unique and better ways to combat the depression exemplify what it is to be a leader. To be a leader does not mean one has to hold a position of power, however. The best leaders lead not with words, but by example. My grandfather, who sits among you today, is one of these leaders. He is one of the countless unsung heroes of World War II. At the age of eighteen, the age of many of us graduating today, he left to fight in the war. While involved in the conflict in Italy, he was injured, captured and became a prisoner of war. After a few unsuccessful attempts at escape, he did escape and valiantly made his way back to Allied lines during the Battle of the Bulge. His courage and valor during and after the war provide an example for all of us to follow. On behalf of all gathered here today, I would like to thank my grandfather and all the unsung heroes of World War II for everything they have done. We admire you for your courage, and respect you for your leadership. When a pebble is dropped into a pond, ripples are formed that continue outward in all directions, and affect the entire pond. Our actions, like the ripples in the pond, have a similar effect. For example, suppose one person selflessly helps two other people, one in the painting of a house and the other in the paving of a driveway. These two people are encouraged by this person to help others, and so these people in turn each help two different people. If this cycle repeats itself only twenty times, over one million people will have been helped, and yet one person will never have helped more than two people. I encourage all gathered here today to be this person, to take the initiative and help one another. Whether you currently are or will become a public leader such as Roosevelt, or lead those around you by your example like my grandfather, everyone can become a leader. I now direct my words to the Class of 2000. Our whole lives have been spent in preparation for this moment. The time for preparation is over, and now is the time for action. The future is ours, and the world is ours to change. Today we leave our positions as leaders of Walpole High School. We shall become the new leaders of the world. We shall build, and we shall create. Above all, we shall strive to be true to ourselves and to follow our hearts. We shall not follow in the paths of others, but instead blaze our own paths into the next millennium. Let us be remembered not for our words, but our actions. We are, and will always be, a class of leaders. On behalf of the Class of 2000, I would like to thank the parents and families, the faculty and staff of Walpole High School, and everyone gathered here today for their support and encouragement. We could not have done it without you. Thank you.

Speech of Salutatorian Alison Levy



Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

These words from the poem "The Road Not Taken" by Robert Frost portray the feelings we have for where we are today at our crossroads. First, I would like to sincerely welcome Superintendent Livingston, Principal Sambuceti, faculty, members ofthe School Committee, distinguished guests, friends, family, and most warmly, the graduating class of 2000 to this memorable occasion. Graduation is a time to reflect on the past with appreciation and to welcome the boundless future with fervor. Not only is Walpole High School's class of 2000 distinguished for being the graduating class at the turn of this millenium, but it is also remarkable because over the past four years it has shown attributes that assure future prominence. As Frost knew, making decisions is an inevitable part of life. Sometimes we have help, but often these life-altering decisions must be achieved on our own. As we come to the end of one road in our long journey, it becomes necessary to choose our next direction. Many of us choose to continue to take the road to further education. Others have chosen their way into the work force, while others still look down their routes of choices and opportunities. Look to the past, for it exists to serve the future as a guiding force in the voyage that lies ahead. No matter which path we choose, Walpole High School has given each and every one of us the ability to make that decision and move forward. Over the past four years, we have seen the graduating class of 2000 change from individual students trying to find their way, to a single force displaying its developed character, leadership, and talents in our school and throughout our community. Our graduating class united to form what is hopefully the first annual Mr. WHS, displaying worthy character traits of hard work and humor. Showing class spirit during the time of school reconstruction, students dressed as construction workers for our class photo. Our class has proven its love for experiencing the world by traveling to such countries as England, France, Italy, and Costa Rica on class trips. We have shown service to the community in various ways, by participating in such projects as the Walk for Hunger and Habitat for Humanity. Our graduating class has also shared its talents with the community by musically performing at Barnes and Nobles' and Perk's open-mike nights andby displaying our artwork at many exhibits. This graduating class has proven that not only does it have the capability, but it also has the desire, to choose ways that have positive effects on individuals, society, and the future. Considering these positive attributes that Walpole's graduating class has already displayed, we can all have full confidence in the future. Every exit is simply an entry somewhere else. With the overall knowledge we have attained from high school, we are now ready to choose our next path. Many will choose the more common road, while some will completely pave his or her own. Either is completely admissible as long as we leave a positive mark. Therefore, I challenge each and every one of us to make our own honorable marks on whatever roads we choose. Do not end the exemplary achievements; instead, take these accomplishments from high school to further levels as we enter society as young adults. Choose paths that improve the community whether it is by applying our knowledge to find a cure for cancer, by using leadership to bring peace throughout the world, or by applying our talents to bring joy to others. Never forget the effects that can be achieved by using our outstanding character simply by staying active to make a difference in our society. And most importantly, no matter which paths we take, remember to enjoy our lives and to live our lives to their fullest. In leaving, I would like us all to remember the words of Robert Frost in his final stanza to "The Road Not Taken":

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
